Deep caring . . .

Often when you think you're at the end of something, you're at the beginning of something else. I've felt that many times. My hope for all of us is that 'the miles we go before we sleep' will be filled with all the feelings that come from deep caring—delight, sadness, joy, wisdom—and that in all the ends of our life, we will be able to see the new beginnings."

I love this quote by the late Fred Rogers. As we go through this transition together, I expect we will also experience these feelings. Sadness as we wished the Ballances goodbye. Wisdom as the staff, transition team, interim pastor, Dock Hollingsworth, and the soon-to-be formed pastor search team seek leadership to continue the journey God has planned for us. As a congregation, we are encouraged to share in the wisdom by participating in the forums on March 21 and May 16.

We have many opportunities for delight and joy in the upcoming months. We have another FIRST WEDNESDAY MEAL on March 3 led by Joe Morgan.

On March 7, we'll celebrate our 23rd birthday on COVENANT SUNDAY! Our youth will be providing lunch as a fundraiser. Two delightful traditions at Heritage are soon approaching. We'll have one worship service at 10:00 am on CHILDREN'S SUNDAY, March 21 and on YOUTH SUNDAY, April 25. What a joyous opportunity for our congregation to come together as our fifth graders and high school seniors lead us in worship.

Another delightful tradition is our SPRING FELLOWSHIP, scheduled for May 2. This year our location is changing to the Cherokee Retreat Center, a beautiful wooded area on Lake Allatoona. Our youth intern, Britt Hester, is looking forward to leading us in fun and games as we gather together for food and fellowship.

I hope as a church, we are full of the feelings that come from deep caring, and that we will take this time to encourage and support each other in all areas of congregational life.

See you Sunday. Susan Tumlin.
