Part 4 in the series “A Faith That Works –

Faith can wither and die. As Jesus points out, a dead faith is where religious teachings do not lead to acts of love. James says if we really want to see our faith come alive, practice compassion.

Message: “Taming the Tongue”

(James 3:1-12; Mark 7:21-37)

James offers us some speech therapy in order to harness the awesome power of our speech for the good of others. Together, we also celebrate the Lord's Supper.

Renewal

After the dog days of summer, September slips in and brings welcome changes in temperatures and textures, colors and wonders. Even more than spring, fall has been a season for renewal for me. In younger years, it was the start of school with new adventures, old and new friends.

Throughout my ministry, fall brought renewal to church life, too. And perhaps this year more than most, a return to our “regular” schedule will actually feel new.

In this newsletter, you'll see that we've tweaked the Wednesday schedule with children's ministries starting before supper. We've partnered with a local teacher to bring a set of ESL courses here on Wednesdays.

The youth will have their midweek time together, and for adults, I've planned some interactive studies.

Sundays will bring some other new offerings, not the least of which will be our Act III older adults leading us in worship.

And then, to kick off global missions, we will again play host to Operation Inasmuch's Food Pack ministry. We'll perform a miracle and in a single morning create 25,000 meals to share with those in need.

Even now I sense God's Spirit bringing us a fresh autumn breeze to renew our faith. See you Sunday. Grace and peace,

Michael
